Balmiki Kumar (Bihar)

I've been a dealer for a long time, and finding a reliable supplier is key to our success. Partnering with Petro for their hardware products and unbreakable bath accessories has been one of the best decisions we've made. The quality of their hardware is second to none, and it's a huge selling point with our contractors. The "unbreakable" claim on their bath accessories isn't just marketing-they truly are robust and have held up perfectly, which has completely eliminated customer complaints. Their dealer support is fantastic, and they genuinely feel like a partner in our business. If you're a dealer looking for a brand that stands behind its products and provides great service, this is it.
